

Dear Colleague,

This is just a short reminder that the deadline for this year's UFAW SAWI Animal Welfare Student Scholarship Awards is fast approaching! The closing date for applications is: 28th February 2013.

The UFAW SAWI Fund offers support to undergraduate students to enable them to pursue their interests in animal welfare and to provide them with the opportunity to conduct relevant research or other (e.g. educational) projects. Projects must be relevant to improving the welfare of farm, laboratory, companion, zoo, or free-living wild animals whose welfare is compromised by human factors (the project undertaken may be part of the students course).

Students must be registered at a university or college in Israel and they will usually be undertaking courses in the agricultural, biological, psychological, veterinary or zoological sciences. However, we would also welcome applications from students from other disciplines and who are interested in carrying out a project in animal welfare. Applications from MSc students on relevant courses will also be considered.

Successful applicants receive an award of up to 12,000 Shekels to cover scholar subsistence and project costs.

Application forms are available for download from the following website: <http://www.ufaw.org.uk/swaivacation.php>. Or please email me at: scioff@ufaw.org.uk.

The deadline for students who wish to apply is: 28th February 2013.

Thank you.

If you feel that you are not the most appropriate person to contact regarding UFAW SAWI schemes and know of someone else who may be interested in these awards, please could you let me know their e-mail address.

Additionally, please feel free to contact me if you would like any further information or have any queries.

With very best wishes
Yours faithfully,

Liz Carter
