Academic Faculty Staff Members
Hello,

Re: Call for Submissions – The Bloom Scholarships for Outstanding Doctoral Students
Academic Year 2023-2024 – first call

We are pleased to announce that on academic year 2023-2024 the Bloom Graduate School will award 12 competitive scholarships to doctoral students from all disciplines.

The Bloom scholarships are the most prestigious scholarships awarded to PhD students at the University of Haifa. They are granted on individual excellence in studies and scientific research.

The purpose of the scholarships is enabling outstanding students to devote most of their time and effort to consecutive studies and research and to create appropriate conditions that will enable them to complete their doctoral dissertation within a four-year normative period, as set by the academic regulations.

In view of the aforesaid, supervisors are encouraged to apply careful and strict judgement in the selection of candidates to this scholarship and to recommend on the most excellent students, whose contribution and importance to scientific research are expected to be highly notable.

The Bloom scholarships are intended for students who practice their research in the University of Haifa alone, do not receive other academic scholarships and who do not engage in any work in exception of a work that is related to better qualify them for their doctoral research.

Recommendations of faculty members provided to student applicants should attend to the following aspects: The research area, its scientific importance, originality, innovation and expected contribution to the field. They should also point out the academic achievements of the candidate.

Depending on the approval of applications submitted on the first call and subject to budgetary capabilities, an additional call shall be published in course of June 2023.

Submission of the candidates' applications, as well as the delivery of recommendations and obligations for Matching funding in the process of the current call will be operated through an online system.

Allocated scholarship funds

The scholarships of 300,000 NIS each, will be awarded for the 4 years term of doctoral dissertation preparation, 75,000 NIS per annum. The students' supervisors will be required to add to this scholarship from their own sources, in reference to a pre-determined financial obligation that they will undertake by filling an emailed online form. The supervisors' matching, during the total four years term of the scholarship, will be divided to equal yearly portions of 10,000 NIS each.

Requests for dividing the matching according to different amounts or times or for reduction of the matching amount will not be accepted.

Review of candidate files will be pending the acceptance of the recorded confirmation of the supervisor via an online form, attesting to his/her willingness to carry on his/her financial obligation and to the committed matching amount.

Criteria for the selection of candidates

1. Academic excellence that will be reflected in active conference participation, award winning and publication of articles.
